Membership Information

Artworks Gallery opened in 2005 as the first art gallery at the historic Greenbank Farm on Whidbey Island, Washington. In the spring of 2020, the gallery relocated to Langley, the Village by the Sea, known for its character, charm, cute shops, wine tasting and wonderful restaurants.

Langley attracts art collectors from Seattle and the surrounding Puget Sound area. Its recent designation by Washington State as a Creative Arts District will further increase the draw of national and international shoppers and tourists. The gallery strives for a diversity of mediums including painting, photography, fiber, jewelry, wood, glass, sculpture and pottery, and is known for its great gifts and large choice of art cards. As a member/artist owned corporation, all members are expected to participate in management and operation of the gallery. Maintaining membership at an average of 16 artists allows for generous display space for both 2-D and 3-D art.

Requirements for Membership:

- Must be a resident of Whidbey Island
- Pay a non-refundable Gallery Joining Fee of $135.00 (due upon contract signing)
- Pay Gallery Dues, currently $70.00 per month, payable by the 25th of the preceding month (1st month's rent due upon contract signing)
- Understand that the gallery's commission is 15% of sales, and that the gallery collects and pays all applicable sales tax
- Commit to working approximately 2 days per month at the gallery desk
- Attend the monthly First Saturday Art Walk and other special events as often as possible
- Participate in member meetings via Zoom (currently monthly)
- Must be able to accept and conduct gallery business via email
- Vote on new gallery members
- Serve on the Board or on one or more gallery committees

Committees change with the needs of the gallery. Current committees include Work Hours Scheduling, 2-D Rotation/Wall Allotment, 3-D Rotation/Space Allotment, New Members, Maintenance, Advertising, Publicity, Social Media, Facebook, Website, E-mail, Card Rack Display, Daily Tally, On-Line Store and Supply Ordering.
